Agreement on Communication

Henry Ford College and Schoolcraft College agree to cooperate in communicating with each other and with their common and respective publics concerning the established relationship between the two institutions. Communication may include the development of various kinds of publications to inform those who might benefit personally or professionally from the opportunities provided by this agreement. Faculty and staff at both institutions will share the information in this agreement with interested and qualified students and both institutions will provide counseling and advising to students and prospective students.

Article IV Maintenance and Review Procedures

At least one administrative or faculty member from each institution will be appointed to act as agents for the implementation of this agreement, to speak for the institutions and to communicate changes to respective faculty members, advisors, counselors, and others to whom the information is pertinent. Responsibility for oversight of this agreement rests with an appointed individual at Schoolcraft College and Henry Ford College. Both parties agree to communicate annually any changes in their respective programs that may affect this agreement.

This agreement is effective as of February, 2018 until February, 2021 and is a renewal of a May, 2012 agreement. If this agreement is not renewed at the end of the effective period, students will have an additional three years to be admitted to Schoolcraft under the terms of the agreement. Students who began the program prior to the effective period may use this agreement to the extent that the curriculum followed is consistent with the agreement.

Henry Ford College Program Overview

Criminal Justice

Law Enforcement with Police Academy

Program Description

Emphasizes the preservation of peace, the prevention of crime, and the protection of life and property. Prepares successful students for employment in law enforcement positions requiring both an Associate Degree and Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES) certification. Students start this associate degree by first completing required course work at HFC, then transferring to Schoolcraft College to complete the Police Academy component of the program. Students then transfer back to HFC to receive their degree.

The following steps must be completed before applying to the Police Academy at Schoolcraft College:

1. Students must apply and be admitted to Schoolcraft College. SC Admissions 734-462-4426
2. Students must have their official transcript sent to Schoolcraft.
3. Students are required to contact the Schoolcraft College, Public Safety Education Office at 734-462-4306 for application materials one year prior to the intended beginning date for attending the Police Academy.
4. Students must complete the General Education and required support courses at Henry Ford College with a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA prior to entering the Police Academy. Students must provide a signed degree plan from HFC proving successful course completion of the above requirements with their application to the Schoolcraft College Police Academy.
5. Schoolcraft College Police Academy, CJ 287, is a qualifying admission program. Applicants must meet the requirements in order to be accepted.

6. Applicants must successfully pass the MCOLES Pre-enrollment Reading and Writing test and the Pre-Enrollment Physical Agility test.
7. After meeting these requirements, along with a successful interview, criminal history check, and driving record check, qualified students will be admitted into the course.

Career Opportunities:

- Federal Law Enforcement
- Law School
- Police Officer
- Private Industry
- State Law Enforcement

Transfer Options/Requirements

HFC has articulation agreements and/or transfer guides to help students who want to transfer to other institutions once they have completed their studies at HFC. Articulation agreements ensure that HFC graduates can transfer to another institution and work towards a bachelor's degree without loss of course credits complete at HFC. Transfer guides denote the transferability of HFC coursework toward specific degree programs at other institutions.

It is important that students who intend to transfer to another institution consult the appropriate articulation agreements and/or transfer guides to ensure the transferability of the courses they take to the institution they plan to attend.
